YUCK!!

Special thanks to Hunter Fiese who had the temerity to express what every-one in the congregation was already thinking but graciously abided: that the gluten free, dairy free, egg free, everything free bread we've been using for Communion is TERRIBLE! As in it tastes like saw-dust...YUCK! Beginning in February we will be moving to a homemade loaf (thanks to Linda Potter) which is sufficiently free of whatever adversely affects folks, but is significantly more tasty and moist. Out of the mouths of babes!

Back In The “Sing” Of Things

After a seven month hiatus, the congregation was THRILLED to welcome back the Choir to worship on Sunday, January 26th. It was evident to all that our new Director of Music, Meg Dissinger, has brought a lively spirit to our worship, and Choir members a great enthusiasm. Anyone is welcome to come and sing with Meg and the Choir. Practice is Thursday nights at 6:30 p.m., and 9 a.m. on Sunday mornings.

Come and make a joyful noise unto the Lord!

Rev. Leia Lutz, Parish Associate

At the January meeting of the Session, Rev. Leia Lutz was welcomed as a Parish Associate at our church. This is an "official" designation of an ordained pastor who participates in the congregation without serving as an installed pastor (unpaid, and without onerous responsibilities).

Leia is a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary, and served for seven years as the solo pastor of the Peoples Presbyterian Church in Milan, MI prior to moving to Canton last summer. We've been delighted to welcome and get to know Leia, appreciate her preaching (and look forward to more) and are elated to see her singing the choir. Our congregation is blessed to now have two Parish Associates in Leia and Rev. Vanessa Syvertsen.

The Pastor's Report

Sisters and brothers far and near; greetings!

Well, I don't mind telling you that this is my least favorite time of year. Yes, winter is hard (though we've made it to February, so if not necessarily "over the hump" we are certainly cresting the hill) but the real challenge is getting all the administrative ducks in a row to close out the previous year as a church and launch ourselves into the next. I am speaking here of budgets, Annual Reports, Annual Meeting and statistical reporting.

Unsurprisingly, I'm not big into administration. Frankly, I find it burdensome and unfulfilling. More a necessary evil than a virtue unto itself. I remember the first time I ran into the term, "Administrative Leadership." The context was the list of skills, attributes, or experiences a church was looking for in a pastor, or a person seeking a pastoral position might possess. I thought to myself, that is oxymoronic as there is no such thing as "Administrative Leadership." Oh, I understand the reasoning behind it, but from my perspective the goal and role of an "Administrator" is to minimize risk, while the responsibility of a "Leader" is to take risks. Clearly, someone somewhere had completely misunderstood the role of the latter in favor of the former; almost certainly an Administrator themselves.

Point being, I do not relish the annual task of collecting and compiling the numerous annual reports (though everyone has been great in getting their reports turned in, thank you, HUGE help), working with spreadsheets and budgets, or articulating how many 4 to 12 year olds we have in the church (etc.) and filing statistical reports with the denomination/Presbytery just so they can feel like they are doing something. However, once we got the Annual Reports completed I was reviewing them one last time before printing/emailing and I thought to myself, "No Mike, this is a good and important thing to do every year."

Something I always tell those who are seeking a call to ministry is to ask for the church's Annual Reports for the past five years for any church with whom they are interviewing. Otherwise, one only has the "Church Information Form" (CIF) to go on in assessing if a church would be a good fit. However, the CIF is what a church thinks it is or hopes itself to be. The Annual Report is what the church is in actuality. Given this way of understanding, I must say that our "actuality" is pretty darn good if not downright excellent.

Please know how appreciative I am of each of you for having a hand in bringing our church to a great fruition again this year. When I say everyone, I do mean everyone. There is no task, no role, no intent, no act or gesture, no prayer, no kindness that isn't included in who we are being as a church. Everything, and everyone matters in our church. Thank you!

With joyous expectation for our future,
- Rev. Mike

PS - I would like to say how much I enjoyed getting my chops busted by those in attendance in worship on the 26th. Just as we started the service everyone moved down to the front of the church (including the choir). Frankly, I've never been in a worship service where everyone sat in the front. Moreover, I've never known a congregation that would, or could, do such a thing; especially just for the fun of it. VERY SNEAKY! VERY FUNNY! Keep it coming!

"What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?" - Romans 8:31

Church School News

In January we had a lesson on the Epiphany and a lesson on how God can help us with our worries and concerns. We discussed various concerns the kids have and ways to cope with them. For the next lesson we made worry sensory bottles. They are bottles filled with glitter, beads, stones, feathers, charms, etc, that are filled with water and you shake them - it has a calming effect. The kids had a lot of fun with that. - Andrea

New Member Class

This spring Rev. Mike will be offer a New Member Class for anyone wishing to join the church (1 hour in length, child care can be arranged). While this a decision each must make as part of one's own spiritual journey, our possible pool of people who might serve as Elders and Deacons could use an influx of new folks (one must be an "official" member to service in these roles). If you are interested in exploring membership in the church, please see Rev. Mike.

Job Well Done!

Heart-felt thanks to Barry Walch, Pat McGuire, Rich Grayson and Anna Eller going off Session, and Ellen Grayson and Jean McGuire going off the Board of Deacons. The entire congregation is deeply grateful for the time, energy, and leadership each has given to our church.

Deacons' Meeting Change

Beginning in March the monthly meeting of the Board of Deacons will move to the second Sunday of the month following worship. As the Deacons met just recently, the change will commence beginning Sunday, March 9th (i.e., there will be no February meeting).

Truth In Advertising

As we have discovered, the new Electronic Messaging Center (i.e., "the Sign") out in front of the church has been a real boon to our congregation in the way our church is perceived by the community.

In the days leading up to the Christmas Eve service the sign included the words "Family Friendly." Now, we all know that our church is very family family, and the Christmas Eve Candlelight service the epitome of such a spirit of welcome. However, most people probably assume (not incorrectly) that for most churches such a service is a somber and staid affair. Sharing these simple words ("Family Family") attracted roughly 20 people to this year's Christmas Eve service; most of them kids and all from out of town. Why? They saw the sign and came to church that night!

Also, on weekend the Buffalo Bills played the Kansas City Chiefs (BOO!!!) the sign read "Go Bills!" and Rev. Mike personally witnessed two people pull up in front of the church, park the car, and take a photo of the sign (see "Sign(s) of the Times" below). Once while he was going to the church before service, and another afterward as he was leaving.

Sports aside, this is an example of advertising ourselves to be "A Different Kind Of Church" as it says on our website. While shifting the paradigm in people's minds about what a church might be is wonderful, the very best advertising is done by satisfied customers.

Meaning, all of YOU! Let's not be the best kept secret in town. Tell your friends about your church experience and invite them to attend with you one Sunday. You will be amazed at how lives might be changed.

Prayer Warriors

Would you like to help your neighbor, stretch spiritually and be a part of the mystical movement of the church? We are always looking for new prayer warriors to join the church

For the stars glittering in the sky,
For these and everything we see,
O Lord! our hearts we lift to Thee.
For everything give thanks!
