After a long career at working in computer technology and security at E-Trade, Mark found great fulfillment in recent years working for the Wounded Warrior Project as the Information Technology Operations Director. Cards may be sent to Mark and Nancy at 201 Brewer Rd. Canton NY 13617. For those who wish, memorial gifts may be directed to the Wounded Warrior Project <https://support.woundedwarriorproject.org/Default.aspx?tsid=10043>.

Great thanks to James Eller for effecting a temporary fix to the leak in the steeple! We really appreciate his time and efforts (not like he has anything else going on with new baby, Jane!); especially given all the rain we've had of late. A real answer to prayer!

Jorge Nsundidi's new address is 1165 Delaware Ave. Apt. 108, Buffalo NY 14209. He'd love to hear from you.

Prayers for Kristin McKie and Sean Boutin who are inducing the birth of their child the evening of Thursday October 29th. VERY EXCITING!!!

Congratulations to Sarah Rodee and Tyler VanBrocklin who are pregnant and expecting a baby in March (due date is the 19th)! We await with joy this new child of God being born in our midst, and keep Sarah and Tyler in our prayers as they move through their pregnancy.

Prayers for Rhonda Walch suffering with an ailing foot; Andrea Montgomery recovering from treatment for skin cancer (4476 CR 17, Rensselaer Falls, NY 13680);

Jean and Pat McGuire, Marilyn Rodee and Heidi Ames recovering from COVID (and others as well). Please stay safe and vigilant.

Continued prayers for Christa Lyon facing continued health challenges, and for her and sons Jason and Mark (and their families) as they grieve Marty's death.

Prayers for Bill Parker at home recovering from surgery, and for Karen facing continued health challenges. Cards appreciated (17 State Street, Canton, NY 13617).

Congratulations Stacie!

Congratulations to Stacie Olney-LaPierre who was honored with The John P. “Jack” Taylor Distinguished Career Service Award which recognizes distinguished service to the University by an administrator who has worked at St. Lawrence for a minimum of 12 years and who sustains high standards of performance.

Stacie was lauded for “her empathy, resilience, and dedication to students during the COVID-19 pandemic, and how she often went above and beyond to ensure students had a safe and rewarding experience on campus despite unprecedented circumstances.”

“Her work on the intricate parts of the housing process and experience are often done without fanfare or public acknowledgment: helping students find new rooms when roommate conflicts and differences arise, providing students with new room codes when necessary, and arranging special-needs housing for those who require a private space to feel safe on campus. She is dedicated to making the student residential experience the best it can be.” This was particularly true of her time as interim Director of Residence Life from November 2021 until April 2022.

Stacie arrived at St. Lawrence in 2007, having previously worked in residence life at the University of Rochester. She holds a bachelor’s in history from Grove City College and a master’s in American history from the University of Rochester. Husband Patrick and daughters Daphne and Gwen are extremely proud, as is her church family.

PFC Hunter!

Congratulations to Hunter Montgomery, son of Joe and Andrea, who recently graduated from U.S. Army Basic Training (i.e., “Boot Camp”) as a Private First Class. He will now move on to Advanced Individual Training at Fort Lee (Virginia) for All Wheel Vehicle Mechanic. His family was on-hand for the ceremony.

Baptisms!

On Sunday October 2nd, and with tremendous joy, we will be celebrating the Baptisms of Jane Eller, daughter of Anna and James; as well as Lincoln and Audrey Gollinger, son and daughter of Cati and Bill. We are absolutely delighted to welcome Audrey, Lincoln and Jane into the body of Christ and our church family!

Thank You Andrea!

At the October Session meeting, we discussed many of the great things happening at our church like the recent Cabbage Roll Sale and Fall Rummage Sale.

Particular kudos was offered for the wonderful job that Andrea Montgomery is doing with the Church School. The kids love coming to church on Sunday to see what fun things Andrea has planned for them, and they feel welcomed and at home here on the Park. We are truly blessed, and greatly appreciate Andrea’s efforts.

Welcome Lynne!

Welcome to our new church secretary, Lynne HunterBeach! "I grew up in the Plattsburgh, New York area and attended College in Saranac Lake. I worked in the Plattsburgh area for 35 years as a Practical Nurse until retirement in Maine. I lived in Maine for 8 years with a desire to return to the St. Lawrence area after my Grandchildren were born, ages 7 and 5. I love the outdoors, my dog Cocoa Beane, painting, and music. My happiest years were always when I was connected to a church community. I am extremely grateful to have joined First Presbyterian on the Park as the Office Coordinator."

The Pastor's Report

Warm greetings my friends! Fall is upon us and the church is simply abuzz with activity. It is a heady time in the life of our congregation and I welcome the gladness which we are bringing to one another and our life together.

After having had the opportunity to step away from things for a few weeks last month to move the ball forward on the She Shack (and great thanks to everyone for your forbearance while I did so) I have returned to my "regular" life a little more introspective and a great deal more prospective; and, it seems, somewhat tangential in the connections I'm discovering between any number of things (which I take to be a good sign).

Case in point is a bit of an odd (and somewhat intimate) story I recently recollected from my youth. It was probably sometime after I began college when, one day while getting dressed, I realized that all my underwear were getting pretty worn out. The stretch had gone from the elastic bands, the fabric was threadbare and holes were forming here and there. This led to the realization that time passes and things change and, apparently, all of this had been obscured by my mother who had been keeping my undergarments in good stead for my entire life up until that point. So, I went out and bought myself some new underwear.

Remembering this then led me to recall, tangentially, a line from the song "Sugar Mountain" by Neil Young, "Isn't it funny how you feel when you are finding out it's real." Though the song is written from the perspective of a young person first becoming aware of the world and one's own place in it, the sentiment is applicable to each stage in our developmental journey throughout the stages of our life.

Isn't it funny
how you feel when you're finding out

Of late I have very much come to appreciate and value that sharing one's life, labor and love with others in a faith community is an on-going lesson in discovering just how real "real life" can be. Moreover, that you aren't the only one who is having that funny feeling; both funny "A Ha" as in that which is interesting, odd or sad, but also funny "Ha Ha" as in what a riot this is when you really sit down and take an honest look at things. We laugh together and we cry together. We acknowledge and honor the changes in each other's lives. Together we bear the turmoil change has wrought, and we celebrate the joy that change has brought. We've all had "our turn" and accept that such a turn will come again for us some day. We abide and support each other in our turning, and our changing, and our living and our dying. In a world which is becoming more "virtual" all the time, how refreshing it is to find a place where what is "real" really matters.

This month, I would like to invite each of you to discover what is real in your life and share how you feel with your sisters and brothers in faith. What is real about having and raising children. What is real about working on one's relationships, family and marriage. What is real about one's labors, career and earning a living. What is real about recreation, relaxation and re-creation. What is real about creative pursuits and interesting endeavors. What is real about hardship, illness and adversity. What is real about aging, retirement and the opportunity to reinvent oneself. And, what is real about losing those we love and having to say good-bye to those who love us. Now is the time. As Neil Young says in the same song, it won't be long before we're thinking that we're leaving here too soon.

I'm with you, really! - Rev. Mike

"And this I pray, that your love may abound still more and more in real knowledge and all discernment, so that you may learn to recognize and treasure what is excellent." - Philippians 1:9-10a

Game Room?

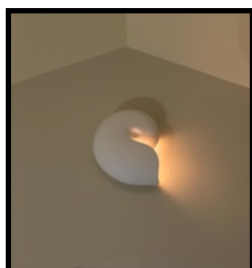

At the October Session meeting, there was a discussion about better utilizing some of the rooms in the first floor of the Christian Education building beyond the nursery (brimming with little ones) and the Conference Room (“Ground Zero” for kids on Sunday mornings).

One of the ideas under consideration is moving the Air Hockey table being stored in the old Youth Group Room into the “Tent Room” to convert it to a Game Room. Another would be to dedicate one of the other rooms as a Women’s Lounge.

The Session wonders if there might be other such games/ideas that would bubble up from the congregation? If you have any ideas, please speak to Rev. Mike. We’ve got a lot of young kids in our church and it would be wonderful to better utilize the building on their behalf.

She Shack!

Rev. Mike and Linda would like to thank the congregation for their forbearance in allowing three weeks away from church duties. No, it isn’t “done” but great progress was made on the interior of the She Shack and dimensioning cherry and maple for the window and door trim (slow and steady wins the race).

Saving Grace

We thank Thee, Lord, that we may feel
Thy presence with us at this meal,
And when we leave may we be fed
On fellowship as well as bread.

No Tricks - Lots of Treats!

Did you know that Halloween is Rev. Mike’s favorite holiday? It is! You are invited to join in the celebration by wearing a Halloween costume to church on Sunday, October 30th.

Also, bring in a carved jack-o-lantern pumpkin to place in the sanctuary that day. We will light them for the worship service and enjoy the treat of being together as a fun-loving, celebratory church family!

October Session Meeting

Rather than meet on Halloween night, the Session will meet after worship on Sunday, October 30th in conjunction with the planned Connectional Visit from COM. Treats for all.
